REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING APRIL 14TH, 1859.

The arrivals of country produce have been exceedingly light during the past two or three weeks, owing to which fact we have but meagre transactions to report. The following review comprises all the sales that we have been

TURPENTINE-Nearly or quite all of last year's crop having been brought to market, the receipts for the next three or our weeks must necessarily be light, when the new crop will no doubt begin to come in. A few lots of new virgin have already been received and taken by distillers at $5 .-The quantity received during the week just ended has been very small, not being sufficient for distilling purposes, and the market closes firm at an advance of 5 cents on last

Thursday's prices. We quote sales as follows: Bbls. New Virgin. Yel. Dip. 220 Saturday..... 585 3 05 3 05 Monday 42 5 00 Wednesday.... 296 3 05 5 (0)

SPIRITS TURPENTINE-The market has ruled inactive since our last, and the transactions have been limited at a decline of one cent # gallon. The receipts for the week have been exceedingly light, and only a small stock remains in first hands; buyers, however, seem but little disposed to operate.
